LONDON :
WHITING & CO., 30 AND 32, SARONIA STREET, W.C.

PREFACE.

THE practised topographer and genealogist knows well the value of "Chancery Proceedings", yet not a few will refer to this calendar without any very definite idea respecting the nature of the documents to which it forms a clue. Some brief particulars may therefore be acceptable to many.

Suffice it to say that the initial step was by means of a petition, technically known as the "Bill of Complaint", addressed by the aggrieved party to the Lord Chancellor. This set out the facts upon which the complainant relied, and ended with a prayer asking the Lord Chancellor to issue a "writ of subpoena", directed to the defendant, who in due course filed an "answer", in which he set out his defence to the bill. The plaintiff then put in his "reply", and the "pleadings" might advance to further stages before the cause was heard by the Lord Chancellor, who after hearing the "depositions", if any, in due course pronounced his "decree", which shows how the suit terminated. There might also be various incidental or "interlocutory" proceedings, as special inquiries before a Master, and "orders" made thereon, and "demurrers". For the antiquary, the most fruitful sources of information are the "bills and answers" and the "depositions", or evidence filed in the suit.

The jurisdiction of the Lord Chancellor was, in its origin, ancillary to the common law, the defects of which it supplemented with the equitable power which he wielded as "keeper of the king's conscience", though the rules of equity in time became as rigid as the ordinary law.

The subject-matter of chancery suits was infinite in its variety. Nothing was too great, scarcely any grievance too small for the attention of the Chancellor. Quidquid agunt homines might almost be described as the motto of this court. Dealing especially with the execution of "trusts", and what may be called "family business", chancery proceedings have a peculiar value for the genealogist, for they often elucidate in a marvellous manner intricate questions of pedigree; and since there is scarcely a family in the middle and upper classes which has not been concerned in a chancery suit at one time or another, it is evident that this source of information must not be neglected.

A fuller account of Chancery Records will be found in How to Write the History of a Family, by the present Editor, but the best description within a moderate compass is in the Genealogist, vol. iv, New Series, edited by Mr. Walford D. Selby, who also printed with the same article, as a specimen, "Bundle A" of the calendar for the reign of James I.

Chancery Proceedings, owing to inadequate calendars, have not received the attention they deserve. The old Record Commissioners printed, in 1829, at a vast expense, in a cumbrous folio volume, an elaborate calendar of Chancery Proceedings temp. Elizabeth, which, however, is a mere selection, thus still necessitating reference to the old MS. calendar, although no intimation that such is the case is given. It is impossible to justify this, for the terms of the order made in 1821, authorising calendars to be printed, evidently contemplated that they should be complete. Probably it was due to this that the scheme of printing the calendars for the reigns of James and Charles was not carried out, which thus has been left for private enterprise to initiate some sixty years later. It is worth noting that if the Record Commissioners had printed their calendar in the style of the Index Library it might have been compressed into one-fifth of the space at one-fifth the cost.

The "Bills and Answers" and the "Depositions" for the reigns of Elizabeth, James I, and Charles I were calendared in seven volumes in the reign of Queen Anne, by direction of Richard Topham, who died 7th September 1730. In the calendar for James I is this note :

"The Bills and Answers, etc., in the Reigne of King James ye jst were sorted and placed in the White Tower, and this Alphabet thereof made in the time and by the direction of Richard Topham, Esq., Master of this office. Anno D'ni 1707."

These calendars are not quite exhaustive; there is a further series of "Miscellaneous Chancery Proceedings", Henry VI to James II, with indices nominum in three MS. volumes, while some few others as yet uncalendared are referred to in Appendix II of the Deputy Keeper's Fifth Report.

The present and second volume of the Index Library contains the whole of the first volume of Topham's Index for the reign of Charles I. The plaintiffs include the letters A to D only, but the defendants of course extend through the whole alphabet. "Versus" has been substituted for "contra", while other latin expressions have been translated. It has not been thought needful to indicate, as in the manuscript, the precise nature, as bill, answer, reply, etc., of the pleadings indexed. Occasionally some errors in the original manuscript have been corrected by checking the documents themselves. When applying at the Record Office for any given suit, the searcher should write on his ticket the reference thus—"Chan. Pro., B. and A., Chas. I, A 1, No. 1", which refers to the suit of Atlee v. Lamploe.

This volume contains references to very nearly 60,000 plaintiffs and defendants,* so that the entire series for the reign of Charles I must include references, on the lowest computation, to a quarter of a million of documents.† These figures give some slight idea of the vast mine which this section of the Index Library opens up to the student.

The completion of the present volume, the first relating to the Public Record Office, seems a fitting time for the Editor to acknowledge his indebtedness to Mr. W. D. Selby, who very kindly gave him most valuable advice when engaged in planning the Index Library.

* \approx nearly 30,000 cases.

† \approx nearly 120,000 "sets" of documents, ascertaining to some near number of cases.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

THE object of the INDEX LIBRARY is to render accessible to students, in a cheap and handy form, the Indexes and Calendars to the more important Public Records which now exist only in manuscript.

The Indexes will not be rearranged in lexicographical order, although on first consideration that may appear to be the more convenient course. Several reasons militate against such a plan. When an index is so rearranged, it is impossible to check the accuracy of the transcriber, while for historical purposes it is often of the highest importance to have the Records of a particular period grouped together.

The aim of the Editor is not so much to compile new Indexes and Calendars to the Records, as to render available old ones now in manuscript, which have stood the test of long use, adding when necessary supplementary Indexes, arranged lexicographically, in order to facilitate reference. To do otherwise would involve the loss of much time, and would increase the cost of the work. The student will benefit most by the issue of this series in a cheap, handy form, and above all with expedition and regularity. Bis dat qui cito dat.

The present series of Indexes is but a small instalment of what the literary and antiquarian world may expect, if the publisher's enterprise meets with adequate support. Arrangements are already in progress for the issue of many other Indexes, not a few of them being to documents which are scarcely known even to the frequenters of the Public Record Office.

Amongst the records to which it is intended to issue Indexes and Calendars similar to the present series, may be mentioned the following, all of which, it will be seen, are of great general and local value.

Subject Index to Patent and other Ro'ls—Henry VII to William III.
Patent Rolls. Index Locorum—Henry VIII to Charles II.
Wills of Bedfordshire, Gloucestershire, Worcestershire, etc.
Marriage Licences at Gloucester and elsewhere.
Star Chamber Records.
Indentures—Grantors.
Close Rolls, Grantees.
Etc., etc., etc.

Some reference to the Records indexed in the present part may be acceptable to the reader, though a detailed account of them must be deferred for the introduction, which will be prefixed to each completed Index.

Chancery Proceedings, the Records of the High Court of Chancery, are well known for the light they cast upon family matters with which that Court was principally concerned. There are few families of property which at one time or another have not had to invoke its aid. The proceedings were by a petition called a bill of complaint, setting out fully the plaintiff's case, and an answer by the defendant, followed by the reply. Evidence was given by depositions, and the suit was ended by the decree. The series now indexed are the Bills and Answers of Charles I. A Calendar to the Chancery Proceedings of Elizabeth was printed in folio by the Record Commission. The Index to Bills and Answers of James I—letter A—appeared in The Genealogist, New Series, Vol. IV, with a full account of the records of this Court.

The Royalist Composition Papers are invaluable for the information they give relative to those families who supported King Charles I in his contest with the Parliament. The "Delinquents", as the Royalists were styled, were allowed to compound in certain proportions, varying from a sixth to a half of their estates. There are separate Indexes to the first and second series of papers, which the Editor has combined in one alphabet, a boon which the student will appreciate.

The Signet Indexes afford a clue to the very important series of Records known as the Patent Rolls. The Signet Bills form the authority under which Letters Patent are ultimately issued. The nature of the information which may be obtained by means of the Signet Bills and Letters Patent is briefly shown by the word following each name indexed, such as "warrant", "grant", or "lease". This Index has also been rearranged.

It may be well to add that in the INDEX LIBRARY all Latin expressions will be translated, and the spelling of place-names modernised as far as possible.

The February Part will contain two sheets of Chancery Proceedings, the first part of the Northamptonshire and Rutland Wills, and a summary of the regulations affecting the Public Search-rooms at the Record Office.

A MODERN

Visitation of Nottinghamshire.

TO BE EDITED BY

COLONEL A. E. LAWSON LOWE, F.S.A., and W. P. W. PHILLIMORE, M.A., B.C.L.

The Editors propose to issue a volume of the Pedigrees and Royal Descents of the past and present leading families of the Town and County. No Collection of Nottinghamshire pedigrees has appeared of a later date than 1678, when Dr. Thoroton published his "Antiquities of Nottinghamshire." The volume of Nottinghamshire pedigrees issued by the Harleian Society comes down to 1614 only. Many pedigrees, therefore, will now appear in type for the first time, while others will be extended and amplified. The following particulars give some idea of the work, which will differ from others similar in several important points:

MEMORANDA.

This month thirty-two pages of Chancery Proceedings are given, and the first portion of the Northamptonshire and Rutland Wills, now preserved in the Northampton District Probate Registry of the High Court of Justice. The latter will be especially prized by genealogists, while Americans will remember that the first named county is intimately associated with the names of Washington and Garfield.

The PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE is situated between Fetter Lane and Chancery Lane, London; the entrance from the latter is through Rolls Yard.

Example is better than precept, and the following will show the student who requires to consult some old chancery suit, how to fill up his search ticket. The reference is to the suit of Atlee v. Lamploe, with which "Bandle A 1" commences.

MEMORANDA.

The SIGNET BILLS form one of the steps which occur in passing Letters Patent under the Great Seal. Such steps in the great majority of cases are the following :—

1. Petition addressed to the Crown, upon which is grounded the
2. Reference as to the law officers, i.e., the Attorney-General and Solicitor-General, upon which follows the
3. Report of the law officer, and, if required, of the Privy Council.
4. Warrant under the Queen's sign manual, which is the authority for the
5. Queen's Bill, which is the authority for the
6. Bill of Privy Signet, which is the authority for the
7. Writ of Privy Seal, which, having the receipt of the Lord Chancellor is the authority for the
8. Patent under the Great Seal.

In the Round Search-room at the Public Record Office are preserved the Docket Books, with some chasms, from the year 1584, which contain a copy of the docket at the foot of the Queen's Bill, and may be described as forming a précis of the Signet Bill and the ensuing Letters Patent. They form a series of about fifty volumes.

As an example of the information to be gathered from the SIGNET INDEX, we give the following extract from the Docket Book, which refers to the famous Italian jurist Alberico Gentili, who settled at Oxford in the sixteenth century :

"A dispensation for Alberico Gentili, reader of the Civil law lecture in Oxford to be absent from that his charge and personall residence within that universitie in respect of that he is appointed by her Ma^{tie} to attende upon Sir Horatio Palavicino whom her Ma^{tie} sendeth into Germany for her speciall affaires. And in the meantyme that he shall enjoye all his lyvinge Provided that he doe supply his charge of the said lecturer duringe his absence by some sufficient persoo. Dated Grenewich the xxth of February, 1589."

During the period of little more than four years indexed in our January portion of the SIGNET INDEX we find five entries relating to Sir Walter Raleigh, the substance of which is as follows :—

On 10th June 1585 he received a commission empowering him to seize for Her Majestys service any ships, mariners, and soldiers, and all provisions and munitions, which he should find in any port, creek, or haven in Devon or Cornwall. Two years later, 8th June, 1587, a warrant was issued directing the exchequer to pay him £2,000, to be expended by him according to such directions as he should receive. Later on, in November of the same year, by a similar warrant, £100 was to be paid to Sir Walter Raleigh or Cæsar Raleigh, for the purpose of fortifying Portland Castle. There are two more entries respecting him in the following year. He obtained a licence for thirty-one years in May 1588, to grant licences for the sale of wines, and in September he received a licence to transport 8,000 clothes.

More detailed information would no doubt be obtainable from the letters patent which ensued, but these few notes, which are taken exclusively from the Docket Book on the shelves of the Round-room, will be sufficient to indicate to the reader the value of the information which is ready to his hand, without even the formality of preparing a ticket.

In the April number will be given portions of the Chancery Proceedings, Northampton and Rutland Wills, and the Royalist Composition Papers.

MEMORANDA.

For the reader's further information, we give in this Part some extracts taken from Mr. W. D. It may be worth while noting, that in this volume is also printed an Index Locorum to the Royalist Composition Papers, (First Series for these two counties).

During the period of the Interregnum, the executive government was almost entirely carried on by means of different Committees. Among these, the Committee for Compounding with Delinquents—i.e., those who took the royalist side in the Civil war, and also Papists and Recusants,—which lasted from 1644 to 1657, and superseded the Sequestration Committee, occupies a prominent position.

As Mrs. Green states, in her preface to the Calendar of State Papers, Domestic, 1649-1650, the object of this Committee "was to receive from delinquents themselves, either such against whom no information had been made, or such as were already under sequestration—

"(1) A confession of their delinquency.

"(2) A pledge of adherence to the present government.

"(3) A full account on oath of their possessions, real and personal.

"Whereupon a legal report was made, and they were admitted to compound in proportions, according to their guilt; half the estate was exacted from any delinquent Member of Parliament; one-sixth from those who had taken part either in the former or latter war; two-sixths or one-third from those who had been active in both wars, etc. Those who were in cities that surrendered on articles of war compounded according to the tenor of those articles."

The sums so assessed were paid direct into the Treasury at Goldsmiths' Hall, and amounted in eight years to the considerable sum of £1,304,957 2s. 1d.; but even this respectable total did not include the estates of many of the wealthiest delinquents—those who were not permitted to compound or who quitted the country—which the sequestrators seized in their entirety.

The Royalist Composition Papers, as the proceedings of the Committee for Compounding are termed, are of the greatest interest and value in elucidating the family history, and ascertaining the actual landed and personal property of individuals during the period of the Commonwealth. The original papers are now arranged and bound up, in two series, and are referred to by manuscript Indexes. The First Series consists of 7,300 sets of papers, bound in 113 folio volumes. It comprises the correspondence and orders of the Commissioners for sequestration and sale of the estates of the royalist nobility and gentry. The first portion of this series is arranged alphabetically, under the names of the Compounders; then come the miscellaneous Petitions and Orders; and these again are followed by the Letters and Reports in a County arrangement.

The Second Series of 3,634 sets of papers, bound in 54 folio volumes, is especially valuable. In these will be found the original particulars given in on oath of the estates and personal property of those royalists who were permitted to compound on payment of a fine, and the amount of the Compositions so levied on them by the Commissioners.

In addition to the preceding, there are two very large volumes of "Entries of Particulars of Delinquents' Estates, Real and Personal" [G 55, 56], with an Index Nominum [G 57]; and also two similar Entry-books, containing Reports on Delinquents' Estates and Fines levied thereon [G 53, 54], with an Index to both at the end of the second volume [G 54]. Duplicate copies of the original particulars are furnished in these registers. Two volumes belonging to the same Commissioners, containing Surveys of Estates during the years 1652 and 1653 [G 58, 59], are deserving of especial notice, and will certainly repay a careful examination.

Part V, for May, will contain portions of Northamptonshire and Rutland Wills, Chancery Proceedings, and Royalist Composition Papers.

TO BE EDITED BY

The Editors propose to issue a volume of the Pedigrees and Royal Descents of the past and present leading families of the Town and County. No Collection of Nottinghamshire pedigrees has appeared of a later date than 1678, when Dr. Thoroton published his "Antiquities of Nottinghamshire." The volume of Nottinghamshire pedigrees issued by the Harleian Society comes down to 1614 only. Many pedigrees, therefore, will now appear in type for the first time, while others will be extended and amplified. The following particulars give some idea of the work, which will differ from other similar books in several important points:—

I. Lists of the High Sheriffs, Members of Parliament, Mayors, Records, Town Clerks, etc., will be given, with particulars of the various corporations now existing, and notices of their arms and town seals. Lists of the Justices of the Peace will be added.

II. Pedigrees will be given in paragraph form, with Key tables whenever desirable.

III. The younger branches, and the more important female lines, will, as far as possible, be recorded, and brief biographies of notable persons will be added in footnotes.

IV. Royal Descents will be given in the usual tabular form.

V. The arms of the various families will be given, together with the authority for their use. When a family represents any extinct county family, the pedigree of the latter will also be given.

VI. Illustrations of coats of arms, portraits, autographs, and family seats, will be added, but to what extent must depend upon the support accorded to the undertaking.

The work will be printed in crown 4to, and will be issued in four Parts, with full Index, and list of Subscribers. Each Part will contain at least 30 pages. Price £1 1s. for the four Parts, post free. Particulars of the Large Paper Edition will be announced in due course.

MEMORANDA.

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE AND RUTLAND WILLS.

WITH this Part we give the remaining portion of the Index to Book K. For this Northamptonshire antiquaries are indebted to the patient industry of the late Thomas William Cattell. When, many years ago, he commenced to search the wills in the Northampton Registry, he found that those contained in Book K were without an index, and he thereupon set to work to compile one, in that careful painstaking manner which was so characteristic of all he undertook. One copy he presented to the Registry for the office use, and another he retained for his own library. It is from the latter, now in the Editor's possession, that the index here given to the subscribers has been printed.

Though a native of Coventry, in which city he was born on 26th June 1809, Mr. Cattell may be claimed as a Northamptonshire worthy, for his ancestors had long resided in that county, and he himself felt a keen interest in it. Some notice, therefore, of Mr. Cattell will be acceptable to the reader. He received a private education, and having selected medicine for his profession, he subsequently studied at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, becoming L.S.A., 23rd Jan. 1831, and M.R.C.S. in November of the same year. For some time he was resident at Winkfield, in Berkshire, but afterwards practised for many years at Liverpool. It was not until he retired, quite late in life, that he commenced to take any interest in genealogical pursuits, and then his attention was directed thereto by the casual circumstance of seeing a "next-of-kin" advertisement. Being then a leisured man he was urged by friends to make an investigation, which he did, though with the usual result of finding that there was nothing in it. The search resulted in the collection of a number of miscellaneous family memoranda, and what was more, Mr. Cattell acquired that keen interest in genealogical matters which he retained until the very day of his death. Indeed, it may be said to be one of the very few instances in which a "next-of-kin" advertisement ever did any good. For a time after he left Liverpool he resided in London, but ultimately settled at King's Stanley, Gloucestershire, the district with which his maternal relatives were connected. Here, at Blakeford Cottage, he died on the 24th April 1883, and was buried in the churchyard of that village.

The collections which he left are numerous, though of a somewhat special character, and it is noteworthy of his retiring disposition that he never essayed to place anything in print; indeed, it is believed that the present index to Book K is the only specimen of his work which is in type. In the first instance, like most other genealogists, Mr. Cattell turned his attention to the history of his own name and family, his collections about which are remarkably complete, and are nearly all embodied in some eight or ten manuscript volumes, forming, in fact, an elaborate register of the name. In doing this he not only made exhaustive searches at Northampton Probate Registry, the Record Office, Somerset House, and through innumerable parish registers, but also undertook the very tedious work of extracting all the modern Cattell entries in the records of the Registrar-General, a task which has seldom, if ever, been done before. Mr. Cattell made abstracts of some hundreds of Northamptonshire wills, chiefly relating to yeoman families in the Western half of that county; these, which he indexed very fully, are now in the Editor's possession. After he had somewhat whetted his curiosity with regard to his own patronymic, he turned his attention to Gloucestershire genealogy, and choosing the family of Clutterbuck for his principal subject, he amassed an immense amount of information respecting that name in all parts of the country. The Close Rolls, the Patent Rolls, the Feet of Fines, Parish Registers, Bishops' Transcripts, Wills, and Marriage Licenses were all diligently examined for entries relating to the Clutterbucks, and his extracts therefrom for the history of that family may appropriately be styled his magnum opus. It was a work in which this genial and painstaking antiquary felt the greatest interest, and upon it he was engaged until within a few hours of his death. Besides the above he made many abstracts from the Gloucester Wills, Marriage Licenses, and Bishops' Transcripts, chiefly illustrative of the "clothing" families in the Valley of Stroud. Mr. Cattell was somewhat of a recluse, and allowed his antiquarian studies to engross most of his attention, but his genial and kindly nature was much valued by a small circle of intimate friends, and his death was much regretted. For the last few years of his life a widowed sister, Mrs. Marmont, who was possessed of kindred tastes, resided with Mr. Cattell. She zealously aided him in his researches, and after the death of her brother, whom she survived a little more than a year, she continued the indexing of his Collections in accordance with the plans he had laid down. Though she did not herself undertake any original work relating to Northamptonshire, a notice of Mr. Cattell's life would be incomplete without a reference to this lady.

Part VI, for June next, will contain one sheet of Chancery Proceedings, and two sheets of Northamptonshire Wills.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

NOW that the INDEX LIBRARY is half way through its first year, it may not be inopportune to consider the progress that has already been made.

The Northampton and Rutland Wills are now approaching completion, and in the present number are brought down to the year 1610; i.e. the Wills of these two counties for a period of one hundred years are now in the hands of subscribers. References to upwards of 10,600 Wills have already been printed, and it is estimated that in about three months' time the whole will be complete down to the year 1652, with detailed Index, and Introduction. It is more than doubtful if such a mass of genealogical information has ever before been given to the public in so compact and cheap a form by any society or individual. The type adopted and the method of printing has allowed of the utmost economy of space.

The printing of the Signet Indexes will be resumed very soon. In the progress of the work a serious gap, 1597-1602, has been discovered in the office indexes, and this has necessitated the preparation of new ones from the original docquet books. Subscribers will benefit by this, as they will be supplied in the new portion with references to all names, even those only incidentally mentioned. The portion which has already appeared, for the years 1584 to 1593, alone contains upwards of 3,600 names, and in view of the approaching celebration of the Spanish Armada tercentenary, this part of the INDEX LIBRARY must be of more than ordinary interest, since it teems with references to the leading men of that day. It would be impossible to write a satisfactory history of the Spanish Armada and the defenders of England without reference to the Signet Indexes and the Patent Rolls, to which they form an admirable clue.

The Royalist Composition Papers and the Chancery Proceedings are steadily progressing. The value of the former has long been appreciated by genealogists, and it is enough now to remark that the references already supplied amount to about 16,400.

Chancery Proceedings in the past have scarcely received that attention they deserve. This is due in great measure to their inaccessibility. A distinct step forwards towards making them known has now been taken. It is not too much to say that for the future no family history or pedigree can be regarded as even approximately exhaustive until search has been made amongst the Indexes to the Bills and Answers now in progress. The value of these will be apparent from the fact that during the last six months we have printed upwards of 20,600 references to plaintiffs and defendants in suits heard in the time of Charles I. Many a "missing link" will be found amongst these. What is more the perusal of these old Chancery suits lends a new zest to genealogical research, for they bring our ancestors before us with a vivid reality. The subject matter of Chancery suits is infinite, quidquid agunt homines, it may be said that nothing was too great, scarcely anything too trivial, for which a plaintiff might not seek the help of the Lord High Chancellor.

For the future we intend to go on as we have begun—editor and publisher alike are ready and anxious for more work—and it only remains with the antiquarian world to afford such further support as will enable us to extend our undertaking. A few subscribers in addition to those we already have, will enable us occasionally to give an extra sheet, and so to hasten the completion of our first series.

It may be well to add that only complete Indexes are printed in the INDEX LIBRARY. Collections of mere extracts from any series of records must be deprecated, for however carefully selected they may be, the compiler will almost certainly omit items which ought to be included. What he may judge unimportant, others will consider essential. The object of the present series is to place students at a distance on an equality with those who have access to the original indexes.

We may remind the reader that we have more than kept the promise made in our prospectus, which stated that about 80,000 references would be given in the first year, for in half that time we have supplied our subscribers with more than 51,000.

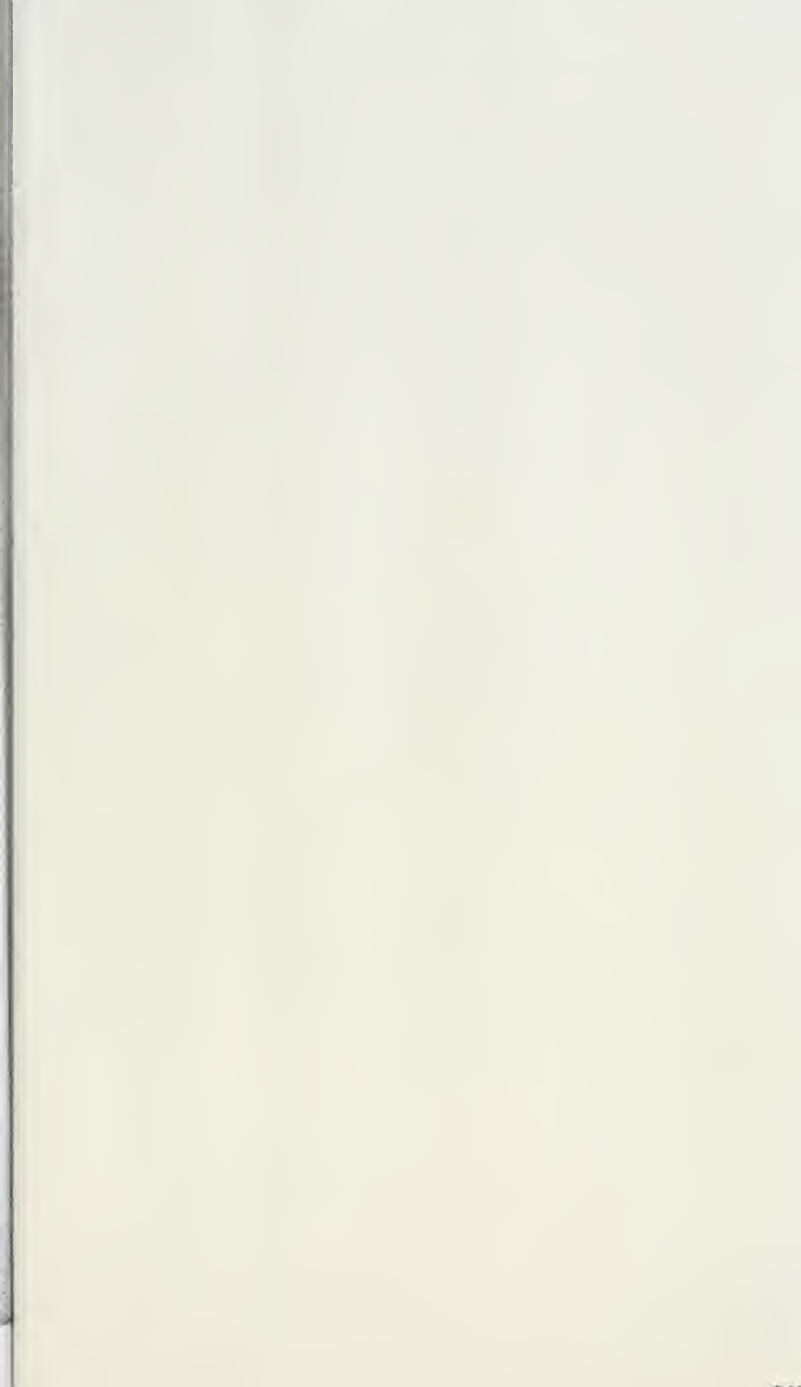

We especially appeal to American and Colonial genealogists, who by the publication of these Indexes are practically on an equal footing with English students.

It is perhaps a little early to say what Indexes will form the second series, but we may mention that an entirely new Index to the Wills of the county of Sussex is now in active preparation. It will probably include also a series of Marriage Licenses.

The large paper edition will, for the future, be discontinued, as subscribers evidently view the INDEX LIBRARY as a working book of reference, and not merely as a drawing-room table ornament. This is certainly a matter for congratulation.

Next month, July, will be given portions of Northamptonshire and Rutland Wills, Chancery Proceedings, and Royalist Composition Papers.
